This however seems to be opposed to what we decided recently in the case of Mr. Wilkinson. It may be that some cases in which this Govt^t is interested are tried in Br. India. If witnesses are called from here, ~~it does~~ would be unfair according to the instructions of our Police, they should be treated as having appeared in our own Courts.

Mr. Narayana Iyengar, Munsiff of Sagar, had to appear before the Sessions Court, Dharwar, to give evidence of matters with which the Munsiff had to deal in his public capacity. He claimed travelling allowances for journey performed to Dharwar. The bill was not passed on the ground that the Mysore Government was not a party to the case.

2. Article 624 of Mysore Service Regulations regulates the grant of Travelling allowances to officers summoned in their public capacity to give evidence in a Criminal or Civil case. The Financial Secretary has suggested that the purport of Government Order No.Fl. 6053-98/S & A.5-05-48 dated 19th March 1906 may be incorporated as a note to article 624 of Mysore Service Regulations. The accompanying draft agreed to by both the Councillors may be approved.
